

Houston Environmental Resources for Educators

Virtual Movie Night

September 24 at 6 p.m.

A program of the Citizens' Environmental Coalition, HERE in Houston offers ways to connect our environmental community of educators. Below you will find a few highlights for the month of September. If you'd like a weekly digest of the region's environmental news, sign up here. Stay safe, mask up, and email Alicia Mein-Johnson if there's anything I can do to help you connect with the environmental community.

Virtual Meet Ups

Calling our environmental educators (EEvengers)! Let's get together to connect with one another, share questions and see how we can help each other navigate uncharted waters. This is an informal discussion and opportunity to connect with the community. Join us Sept. 11 and Sept. 25 from 9 - 9:30 a.m.

Upcoming Professional Development

September 15, 3:45 p.m., Free Gardening 101 Workshop with Janice Brown and Girl on the Grow

September 22, 2:00 p.m., A New Guide to Help you Assess Connection to Nature with NAAEE

September 25 & 26, Texas Association for Environmental Education Conference

Share the Movies or Trivia with your Students

September 16, at 6:00 p.m., challenge your students to Trivia Night with questions all about our coastal habitat and the Flower Garden Banks National Marine Sanctuary. Who's the GOAT?

September 24, at 6:00 p.m., tune in to a virtual movie night. The program includes a family/kid friendly local short film, Wild Birds. Stars of the show will join us LIVE to answer questions and say hello - great for our under 12 crowd. Then three short films will play about raptors, landscapes, and the technology used by ornithologists to study migrations - great for our over 12 crowd.

September 30, at 6:00 p.m., save the date for the Houston premiere of The Condor and The Eagle. This powerful movie with international acclaim features local stories and reminds us of our interconnectedness with the Earth and one another. This would be great for a high school or college class to watch & discuss together. Stay tuned for an October follow up event for students featuring green careers. Registration links coming soon, so stay tuned to cechouston.org.
